What documents to submit?

- 1. PP Scholarship Application Form, duly completed and signed by the applicant and endorsed by the school principal.
  - 2. Confidential School Principal's Report in the prescribed format – format can be downloaded from The Friends' website.
- Both documents are available at:
www.cambridge.org.hk/scholarship.html

- Important: Read the “Application Guidelines and Notes” carefully before you complete the forms. (Also available on The Friends’ website.)
- + Attach to the PP Scholarship Application form:
  - Printout of UCAS application.
  - Printout of COPA (if studying outside EU).
  - Copy of SAQ, if any.

The School Principal's Report

- Academic Achievements:
  - Public examination results (if any).
  - Performance in learning activities and school assessments since S4, with ranking in class. (If awarded prizes and scholarships, state what they are for.)
  - Predictions for forthcoming exams.
- Intellectual Potential:
  - Rank the applicant in terms of critical thinking, intellectual curiosity, motivation, etc.

- Interests and personal achievements:
  - Suitability in undertaking the proposed course of study.
- Work attitude and personality:
  - Time management, maturity, perseverance, discipline, self-motivation, etc.
- Suitability for life and study in Cambridge:
  - Ability to adapt and fit into new environment.
  - Benefit from and contribution to life in Cambridge.
- Comparison with former PP scholars from the same school.

Are there any fees?

- Application for the Prince Philip Scholarship is free of charge.
- Processing Fee (GBP 30) for COPA.
- Overseas Interview Fee (GBP 120) – if applicant is to be interviewed outside UK, but this fee will not be levied against a PP applicant who is shortlisted by the PP selection panel for an interview in HK.

Written Tests

- Aptitude tests required by Cambridge in addition to the HKDSE.
- Depends on proposed subject of study:
  - Medicine – BMAT;
  - Law – Cambridge Law Test;
  - Mathematics – STEP;
  - Economics, Engineering, etc. – Thinking Skills Assessment
- Held in HK for shortlisted candidates on 27 Nov 2013 (except BMAT and STEP).
- No revision required.

The Interview

- Who are the interviewers?
  - Academics from Cambridge and HK.
- How many interviews will there be?
  - In HK: usually one, for both the Scholarship and admission to Cambridge.
  - But for some subjects, it may be preferable for students to attend an interview in Cambridge, if asked. (e.g. architecture).
- How long will the interview last?
  - About 30 minutes. Strong academic bias.

Selection Criteria

- What qualities are we looking for?
  - Academic excellence.
  - Genuine interest in the proposed subject.
  - Aptitude to study the proposed subject.
  - Overall intellectual ability.
  - Language ability.
  - Personal qualities.

- Pre-requisite subjects?
  - Always check the website of Cambridge and that of your preferred college. Some colleges may not offer your subject.
  - HKDSE:
    - At least 2 relevant academically-based Category A subjects. For some subjects, may also require Extended Module in Mathematics.
    - Integrated Science does not provide adequate preparation for Cambridge Tripos.
    - Not prefer subjects like Business, Accounts and Financial Studies; Information and Communication Technology; Health Management and Social Care; Technology and Living; Tourism and Hospitality Studies.
